

TFL5: ThankfulFor— The Series®

Returns with a 1960s-Inspired Lagos Experience

If you've ever scrolled through your feed and felt FOMO from a ThankfulFor— The Series® post, get ready—because the flagship edition, TFL5 (ThankfulFor— Life 5), is about to take things to a whole new level.

This year's theme? "Reliving the 1960s." Think Lagos glamour meets nostalgia: a gold-trimmed black carpet, live jazz, talking drums, traditional dance, soulful R&B, and fashion inspired by Nigeria's golden decade of independence. It's not just an event—it's a journey into heritage and style.

From agbadas and babanrigas to akwete and Ankara prints, TFL5 is putting Nigerian fashion history on full display, reminding us how style has always been a statement of pride and unity.

Since its beginnings in 2019, ThankfulFor has grown from an intimate gathering to a full-on movement, creating experiences like ThankfulFor— The Tropics™ and ThankfulFor— Summer™ that consistently draw Lagos' trendsetters. Now, with the series expanding globally to Toronto, Milan, Cape Town, and Accra, the world is about to experience what Lagos already knows: ThankfulFor is the hottest ticket in town.

TFL5 is where nostalgia, culture, and connection collide. And if history is anything to go by, it's the one event you'll want to clear your calendar for.
